

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The law has improved my time at home due to the reduced number of telemarketing phone calls that I have received. The law has been quite effective and I have received no unwanted calls from companies that I do not wish to hear from. Indiana's law is important to many families that do not wish to be harassed by persons trying to sell unwanted products or services.